

Member benefits

All members

Stand for civil society rights - Join in solidarity to support CIVICUS' Mission, Vision and Values

- gain a better exposure to and knowledge about the state of global civil society through CIVICUS' alerts, reports, social media platforms and our weekly newsletters
- Receive priority information about grants, training and other opportunities
- Share your stories and campaigns with a global network of like-minded activists and organisations

Exclusive to voting members (individuals and organisations)

Take part to the governance of CIVICUS - be part of our decision-making process

- Nominate and stand for election of the Board of Directors and enjoy decision-making powers at CIVICUS Annual General Meetings
- Contribute to the agenda setting of CIVICUS and be consulted to set our strategic priorities and medium-term plans through periodic engagement with the Secretariat

Connect and engage with a global network – Join a community of like-minded activists; build partnerships; exchange ideas; and be involved in activities that promote solidarity around the world

- Access our members' directory and make use of our networking facilities to build new connections globally
- Mobilise CIVICUS alliance for your campaigns and advocacy
- Build capacity by joining CIVICUS thematic groups and communities of practice
- Subscribe and engage with online campaigns and actions
- Receive priority to partner in CIVICUS projects, research and campaigns
- Receive priority for CIVICUS awards and grants

Increase the recognition of your organisation – Expand your visibility within and outside the alliance

- Provide content for our weekly alerts and newsletters and reach out to thousands of subscribers
- Have your profile and content featured in CIVICUS' communication channels, including social media platforms

Get closer to the United Nations and enhance your ability to influence –
Participate in direct advocacy and outreach to multilateral organisations and global platforms

- Enhance your representation at the United Nations and engage in United Nations processes through CIVICUS accreditation and permanent presence in Geneva and New York
- Have your statements issued at the UN sessions on your behalf by CIVICUS permanent representatives
- Receive expert advice to host side events at the major UN sessions (UNGA/UNHRC)

Keep up to date – Receive the latest information and knowledge on civil society issues

- Access member-only information, research papers, publications and policy documents
- Receive priority invitations and access to meetings/events and exclusive communications
- Receive CIVICUS Activities Report , State of Civil Society Report and e-CIVICUS regularly
- Receive tools, data, trends and reports to assess the state of civil society in your country

Save money

- Receive discounts and bursaries to attend CIVICUS events
- Access capacity building and training services at discounted prices
- Use CIVICUS office space in central London and CIVICUS HOUSE in Johannesburg

For more information on member benefits, please contact CIVICUS Membership officer at membership@civicus.org